

Two Chicago—area Workshops on

Cross-Step Waltz

a very accessible vernacular vintage waltz with a swooping
step, graceful yet playful feel and lots of variations

Friday, May 2, 2008

7:30 p.m.

Fermilab

Village Barn

near the East (Warrenville) entrance, just north of Batavia Road on Sauk Blvd.

Batavia

$5

No Waltz Experience Needed

Saturday, May 3, 2008

7:30 p.m.

Harvard

Congregational

Church

1045 S Kenilworth Av

Oak Park

$10

No Need to Come With a Partner

Taught by Jeanette Watts

Jeanette Watts, self-described “dance slut,” has been in a 23-year-long love affair with various types of Ethnic and Vintage Dance. She is proficient at ballroom dances from 1790 to 1960. Beginning with weekly classes with the Flying Cloud Academy of Vintage Dance and annual weeklong workshops with the Commonwealth Vintage Dancers of Boston, she has studied with some of the world’s best teachers at Stanford University, New Orleans Dance Week, Prague in the Czech Republic, and Provence, France. She is currently a performer with the Forget-Me-Not Historical Dance Company, and has founded her own non-profit organization, the Terpsichorean Delights Dance Assembly of Dayton, Ohio. She also teaches and performs belly dance, international folk dance, and French Cancan.

For More Information, call 630-584-0825, email folkdance@fnal.gov or go to <http://www.fnal.gov/orgs/folkdance/>

Sponsored by Fermilab International Folk Dancing, Fermilab English Country Dancing, and Evanston English Country Dancing. Endorsed by the Folk Dance Council of Chicago